Children must be 5 years old on or before August 1, 2010, to enroll in kindergarten for the 2010-2011 school year. Parents or legal guardians will need to be present and provide a copy of the child's legal birth certificate (hospital certificates cannot be considered) at the time of enrollment. The school also may ask to see the child's social security card to facilitate the enrollment process. For more information, parents can contact their child's school.

If parents/guardians do not know what school their child should attend, they can call the EVSC Office of Student Services at 435-8463.
